INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Lizzie Kellogg being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 56 years of age and live in Cherokee Co., Ga. I claim on both sides. My father was 1/2 Cherokee. My mother was about 3/8 Cherokee. I was free born and so were both of my parents. My grandfather on my father's side was a Keton, but I don't know his first name. My father was originally held as a slave and my mother bought him. My grandmother on my mother's side was Francis Allen and her husband was Hugh Allen. It was my grandfather on my mother's side that claimed Indian. Hugh Allen was held as a slave until he was bought free by my grandmother. My grandmother Allen was never held in slavery. She was born in Jackson Co., not far from Jug Tavern in Ga. and raised in Cherokee Co., N. C. Don't know when she was born. My mother died when I was about six weeks old. I don't know how old she was then, but think she was about 20. My mother was never on any roll. She talked of not being on any roll because she never tried to be. My grandmother died after my mother. She raised me and my uncles together. This is the only application I ever made for Indian benefits. My mother nor none of my ancestors never received anything from the government. I am regarded as a colored woman but not Indian. Columbus Allen was my mother's brother. I think he has no application. He lives in North Carolina. Don't know the number of his application. I think Francis Allen lived amongst the Indians but never lived with them as a member of the tribe.

Dear Sir:—

Several months past I filled out blanks as an applicant for a share of funds set aside by an act of Congress for the Eastern Cherokee Indians. An attorney of Woodstock Ga who claimed to be an agent of a Washington firm handled my claim, the usual power of attorney was given this lawyer, and the papers he gave me were signed in due form as the Federal law required. I believe this lawyer is a fraud. Will You kindly notify me if any money for Eastern Cherokee

I. H. Miller, witness for his wife, Victoria Miller, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

Victoria Miller is my wife. She claims Cherokee Indian blood. I do not think my wife's grandparents or parents ever received any Indian money. Spotty Browmy left this country in 1836. He did not want to be carried away by the Indians. This was my wife's great-grandfather. I never saw his daughter, my wife's grandmother. Twenty- years ago my wife lived in Southern Alabama. She was born there. Her grandmother was born in West Florida. Prior to going to Alabama her great-grandfather lived in Lumpkin County, we think. My wife's great-grandfather, as we have understood, ran away from Lumpkin County in 1836 to keep from being sent to the Territory and went to Southern Alabama.

BEFORE MAILING Your REPLY Read this LETTER CAREFULLY and SEE That AN INQUIRY is FULLY ANSWERED.

As our expense for postage is very heavy, parties writing us should bear in mind that we are corresponding with them concerning their own business, that we get no pay at all unless we get the claim allowed, and always enclose a sufficient number of stamps for conducting same. The matter of postage is important to us, and we are obliged to ask each claimant to keep us whole in this respect, and as this is only reasonable and right, we hope you will comply in your own case. The average amount of postage required is in original and new disability cases about 50cts., straight increase 20cts.

Anyhow I am a sister of Mrs. Florence W. Samuel, whose application number is #15304, Post Office, Pryor Creek, I.T. Vance McSpadden Vinita, I.T. and several others. If you will look up the above you will see my name on their application blank.

Trusting you can give me the desired information, and thanking you in advance for same, I beg to remain,

She died in Going Snake. (136 S. B. Che-ah-nun-ah). I think my

Warner May,

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of July 6, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 29,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Appl. #15631

Sarah E. Hurst, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:--

My name is Sarah E. Hurst. I live at Eva, Ala. I was born in 1852 in Franklin Co., Ala. I claim through my mother and my mother's father. I claim to be connected by blood to the Cherokee tribe of Indians. My mother died in 1856. I don't know how old she was when she died. I had a sister Nancy born in 1847. I don't know where my mother was born. I suppose she was born and raised in Cherokee County, Ala, but I don't know. I think she was born there because my father married her there. I don't know where my grandfather came from. His name was William Burges. My mother was recognized as an Indian. She lived with the white people, I reckon. Her father lived with the white people. I have always been with the white people and I have heard that my grandfather was an Indian man. My mother and grandfather never got any money from the ~~Indians~~ Government on account of being Indians as I know of. I never heard of them living with the Indian tribe. I never got any money from the Government. I never heard of my mother or grandfather being enrolled with the Indians. In 1882 I lived in South Alabama. I could not tell you why I was not enrolled with the Indians at that time. I never knew anything about it. I saw the notice in the papers, and I knew that I had Indian blood in me that is the reason I lied.

Maggie Tucker being first duly sworn deposes and says:

I am 26 years of age. I am claim my Indian blood through my father who was about one eighth Cherokee, but the Dawes Commission enrolled us children as one-half Cherokees. My mother was black Dutch. Neither my mother or her parents were ever held as slaves. My father died about 1896 and was ~~born in 1861~~ born in 1861, in North Carolina but I don't know what part of the State. My father's mother was Dutch, he got his Indian blood from his father. My father's mother is still living at Coal Dale, Arkansas, and she is now married to a man named Henson. My father's father was named James Tucker, I made a mistake in my application. James Tucker sr. father was John Tucker. My grandfather had the following brother's and sister's: Albert, Allen, Talitha, Rebecca, Jane, Minerva and John Tucker Jr., Cetzle. (See Chapman 1888 to 1897) We came to this country when I was about six years of age from Blue Ridge, Georgia. At the time of the payment in 1851 my grandfather and his parents were living in Georgia but I don't know just what County, somewhere near Blue Ridge though. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission under the name of Maggie Zetcher (20019) My husband then was Richard Zetcher and he had a daughter by the name of Susie. My sister was enrolled under the name of Linnie Watt. I received the strip payment here but don't know of ever being on any roll in the East myself. I don't know any thing about the Hester Roll. My father did not have any brothers or sisters. I don't know who my grandfather's mother was.
